

---

Statement of educational need and/or benefit:

Additional audio/visual must be ordered through the ISSCR's official meeting contractor GES. All incurred costs associated with Focus Session activities beyond what is provided by the ISSCR as outlined in the Annual Meeting Focus Session Guidelines are the sole responsibility of the organizer.

---

Do you anticipate recording your session?	Yes	No
If yes, please indicate:	Audio only	Video

Any additional costs incurred by the Focus Session organizer is the sole responsibility of the Focus Session organizer. See guidelines.

---

Are there additional ancillary requirements for your session?	Yes	No
---	-----	----

If yes, please indicate:

---

Include with your application:

- Complete agenda with proposed speakers, start time, and end time
- Proposed speaker list to include, Speakers Name, Institution, country and email contact
- A list of Finalized speakers are to be provided no later than 29 March 2019. Changes made after 29 March 2019 will not be reflected in onsite materials.
- Proof of nonprofit status if applicable
- SPECIAL NOTE: If a Focus Session speaker is also presenting in a plenary or concurrent session, each presentation must provide unique information. View guidelines here.

---

Submission

All focus sessions must be in compliance with the ISSCR Annual Meeting Focus Sessions Guidelines posted on the ISSCR 2019 Annual Meeting website.

Send your application to David Perez at dperez@isscr.org on or before 22 February 2019. Applications are reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis. All completed applications will be acknowledged by the ISSCR in March if their application has been accepted.